Lo Since so many members of the Intelligence Advisory Committee are out of town, the IAC meeting scheduled for 10:00 A.M., Friday, May 28, has been postponed until Friday, June 18, at 10:00 A. M. It will be held them in Hoom 7119, North Interior Building, to determine the funds and personnel necessary to complete the NIS Program, which has been approved by all agencies, and to confirm the target date for completion, as it is thought that these major points can be resolved only by the Intelligence Chiefs themselves.

2. The following changes are being made in the Ad Hoc Committee Report to comply with the comments received from the IAS mambers:

a. The "Secret" JCS Priority List will be removed from the revised edition of HIS Standard Instructions which will them be classified "Confidential." Reference to this List will also be deleted in "General Instructions", paragraph 7e(F).

b. The problem of effecting coordination between the HIS and JIB Programs is being examined.

g. The Tentative Allocations of Responsibility will be removed from copies of MIS Standard Instructions sent to Attaches when so requested by Repartments pancerned.

do The issue raised by the nonconcurrence of the Mary member of the Ad Roc Committee is still unsettled. It is understend that a decision on this matter has been requested from the Secretary of Defense. This consideration does not materially affect the NIS Program.

e. To help resolve the issue raised by the Navy's nonconcurrence in the Ad Hoc Committee, there will be inserted a preface to the allocations:

"Neither the following allocations nor any interpretation thereof shall negate the basic principle that each department is responsible for the production of that intelligence which is responsive to its departmental mission."

- f. "Air Force" instead of "Air" will be used throughout the report.
- g. The broader "field of atomic energy" will be used instead of the more limited "nuclear physics" in Section 73.
- 3. The participating departments, outside the IAC agencies, have indicated their willingness to assist.
